

The Pequannock Township Public Library presents:

Musical Duo of Deena Shoshkes and Jon Fried

Thursday, Dec. 14th, 7 PM

Please call (973) 835-7460 to reserve a seat

Music from Jon & Deena features intimate vocal harmonies and charming songs with roots in acoustic folk, catchy indie pop and joyful rock and roll.

Their songwriting has been called "direct and artful," by the New York Times, Deena's voice "...incredible: kidstuff and wisdom merged," by the Village Voice. Their songs have been recorded by Jackson Browne, Dar Williams, Marshall Crenshaw and featured in films and on network TV.

Jon Fried & Deena Shoshkes began performing in the streets in Paris and Rome in the early 80's. They started a rock band called The Cucumbers and found a home in the indie pop scene in Hoboken, NJ. After many years of playing music together in varied incarnations, their duo performances draw upon a deep songbook and effortless communication.
