WITH: KERRY
CONNELLY,
CERTIFIED COACH

Kerry Connelly, CCLP, is a published author, writer and Certified Life Coach who is passionate about helping her clients achieve their goals and make an impact on the world. She is certified in DISC Personality & Emotional Intelligence assessments and is a graduate of the New York City Leadership Fellows Program. Kerry is an expert networker who has built her business on networking.

In this program, Kerry will teach you how to be a networking expert. You'll learn how to develop the kinds of relationships that can actually make a difference to your goals; important things NOT to do when networking, and tips and tricks on how to maximize the networking events you attend. She'll explain the networking bulls eye and how to use it to grow your contact list, and she'll teach you how to mastermind like a pro.
