

The Pequannock Township Public Library presents

*Lower East Side
Illustrated Lecture
With: Marty Schneit
Thursday, June 15th, 7 PM
Call (973) 835-7460 to register*

Want to get a taste of NYC's Lower East Side, but don't want to leave Pequannock?

Marty Schneit, a licensed New York City tour guide, will lead participants on a "trip to the Lower East Side." Schneit will tell visitors a series of stories and tidbits that recount the lives of some of the neighborhood's most famous residents, such as Irving Berlin, Eddie Cantor and George Burns, as well as Rabbi Eisenberg, one of the few remaining Torah scribes remaining in Lower East Side.

Mr. Schneit was born and bred in New York and is a licensed New York City Tour Guide. Marty has lectured at the New York Public Library, National Council of Jewish Women, the JCC, the 92nd Street Y, and the Health Outreach Program of New York Presbyterian Hospital. The Jewish Braille Institute has recorded Marty's lectures for their audio magazine and lecture series. He typifies pride and passion for the city of New York.
